Frontline Shelter Worker – Casual

Department: Shelter, Unionized

Reports To: Violence Against Women Prevention Program Director

Manitoulin Family Resources requires casual frontline shelter workers to support women and children in our emergency residence/shelter program. The shelter worker provides support, crisis intervention, and advocacy to women and children residing at the shelter, as well as telephone counselling and support through crisis line coverage. As a single-staff model of operation in a residential environment, responsibilities pertaining to health and safety in a fast-paced atmosphere and household duties such as cooking and cleaning are required in addition to the provision of individual support and advocacy, in-house client workshops, safety assessments, and linkages to other services.

The successful candidate will have:

- Relevant post-secondary education, training/experience working with victims of woman abuse
- Familiarity with provision of client-led, trauma informed services and harm reduction philosophy
- Excellent interpersonal, planning, and communication skills, experience with data entry and computer skills
- Demonstrated commitment to diversity, cultural competency, and anti-racist/anti-oppressive frameworks.
- Current CPR/First Aid certification, Food Handler's Safety certificate, valid driver's license, insurable driver's abstract, and Vulnerable Sector Screening are all required and conditions of hire.
- Registration with the College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers is an asset, as is second language fluency in Ojibway and/or French

This position is a bargaining unit position. Flexibility in scheduling will be required to meet the needs of the shelter including, though not exclusive to, nights and weekends. Shifts will be both pre-scheduled and on a call-in basis, per the Collective Agreement.
